

Become a Women's Lacrosse Official!

The Illinois Women's Lacrosse Umpiring Board (IWLUB) is seeking active individuals who enjoy working with high school athletes to become women's lacrosse officials.

No lacrosse experience necessary

Officials get a great workout and typically make over $100 each weekday afternoon for working 2, 1-hour games. The IWLUB is now registering prospective new officials for the Summer Clinic.

2012 Summer Clinic

What: 1 day classroom clinic & 1 day on-field training

Who: Active adults who would like to work with high school athletes

Where: New Trier H.S., Northfield, IL & Hassert Park in Crest Hill, IL

When: Saturday June 9th & Sunday June 10th 2012

Cost: $50

What is included: Light breakfast and lunch each day, training materials, ref t-shirt

How: Go to iwlub.org for more information

Officiating women's lacrosse pays well, is a great workout, and allows you to set your own schedule and above all is very fun!

